Take 384 acres of fertile, rolling high-desert country in the rainshadow of the Cascade Mountains, where blossoming orchards and vineyards rise above 120 km Lake Okanagan. Blend in the rich green artistry of golf course architects Les Furber and Nicklaus Designs. It all adds up to The Okanagan Golf Club, one of British Columbia's most intoxicating golf destinations.

The Okanagan Golf Club presents its first challenge before you even pull on your spikes: which of our two championship courses – The Quail or The Bear – to play first. Afterward, kick back in our welcoming clubhouse to revisit your best shots over a refreshing drink. Or try to improve upon them at our extensive practice facility. If you need help, the Golf Academy at The Okanagan Golf Club is located on site.

Crafted by Nicklaus Designs, one of the pre-eminent golf architecture firms in the world, The Okanagan's Bear Course can prove as ferocious as a grizzly or as gentle as a teddy, depending on which set of tees you choose. On its hind legs the layout stretches to 6,852 yards. Well-placed bunkers, grassy swales and collection areas, sculpted moundings, and tiered greens lend the course some bite.

18-holes of championship golf. Par-72. 6,852 yards. Yet the numbers don't begin to describe the pleasure you'll feel playing one of British Columbia's most captivating courses.

The routing climbs through forested hills on a plateau overlooking the Okanagan Valley. The Bear's signature hole comes at number three, 453 yards of challenge requiring a combination of accuracy and distance to avoid two bunkers en route to the green. While the course boasts an extensive collection of sweet holes, numbers thirteen through fifteen – playing over the blue waters of Lake McIvor – are the real honeys here. More than 150,000 cubic metres of earth were moved to create the lake and the dramatic topography around it, yet the course maintains a perfect harmony with the natural terrain. 🐾

The Quail | 6588 Yards | Par 71 | Rating 72.1 | Slope 134

You'll need accurate shooting to bring down the 6,588 yard Quail Course, which features dramatic elevation changes, multi-tiered fairways, and the occasional rocky bluff. One renowned golf writer described the course thus: "You could play The Okanagan Golf Club's Quail Course every day for the rest of your life and never face the same series of shots."

As with many Les Furber designed courses, Quail's par threes are particularly strong – which also describes the tee shot you'll need to hit on the 227 yard seventh hole from the back tees. 🐾

Together, The Quail & The Bear make a delightfully compatible pair.

Welcome to The Okanagan Golf Club.
