The awe-inspiring 23,000 sq. ft. clubhouse creates an ideal setting for a special event.

If some of the golf shots on this target venue quicken your pulse, the tranquility of our setting should help to calm and center you. It's no wonder this was the first course in British Columbia that Tiger Woods played, as an amateur in 1994.

Nestled deep inside a pristine Vancouver Island forest, Olympic View first impresses as you survey the horizon from the first tee, the staggered peaks of the Olympic Mountains seem to pierce the sky above. The seventeenth hole encompasses enough natural beauty for an entire course.

From the tee, aim toward a breathtaking 40 foot waterfall that frames the green 455 yards away. This signature hole plays through a steep, narrow valley past a huge rock column and a Japanese garden.

To complement your outstanding golf experience, Olympic View is home to the award winning GBC Golf Academy. The instructional team has been recognized with several PGA of BC awards, ensuring exceptional private and group lessons, corporate clinics, and extremely popular multi-day golf schools.

- PGA of BC Player of the Year 2014
- PGA of BC Assistant Professional of the Year 2013
- PGA of BC Club Professional Order of Merit Champion 2012
- PGA of BC Junior Promoter of the Year 2007
- PGA of BC Teacher of the Year 2002, 2006, 2007

"Hole #17 is one of the most tranquil settings you'll ever see on a golf course." Ian Cruickshank, Toronto Star
